

Confirmed Speaker

Mr Adam Bialachowski

September 11, 2018

Until the founding of Vintage Consulting, Adam had gained experience working as a consultant for KPMG in the United States and as a Member of the Board at B-Act Sp. z o.o. in Poland. Adam is an expert in the field of business management, project management, contract management, cash flow optimization in construction contracts, tendering, FIDIC contracts, claims strategies and employer relationship management. He has led successful business transactions with international construction and engineering firms on large infrastructural projects. Adam is a graduate of Saint Joseph's University in the field of management and decision-making sciences. Adam, later, graduated with a master's degree in management from Harvard University and in finance and accounting from Kozminski University in Warsaw.

He is a member of the FIDIC YPFSC and a member of the Standardization Committee of FIDIC's Polish MA - SIDIR. He is also the Vice President of the Polish Harvard Alumni Chapter.

Attend the session

Future Leaders Outlook

REGISTER NOW!