

Confirmed Speaker

Mr Mark Worrall

September 10, 2018

Mark is a successful entrepreneur with a background in capital markets, enterprise risk and market data. He founded EIX, the world's first infrastructure trading platform.

He began his career at Thomson Reuters, holding a number of senior management roles before moving to Algorithmics, specialising in enterprise risk, as a director responsible for expanding their European footprint.

Subsequently, he founded Expand Consulting, providing intelligence, business development and decision support services globally, bought by Boston Consulting Group in [date].

In 2005, Mark became MD of Route Group, a wealth club and in 2008 he founded Propel Capital Partners, which raised funds for corporates and projects.

Attend the

Panel 2 – The City of Today and Tomorrow: Challenges & Smart Options

REGISTER NOW!