

Confirmed Speaker

Aisha Nadar

September 9, 2018

For over 25 years, Aisha has been actively involved in all phases of the negotiation and implementation of large-scale cross-border infrastructure and defence programs. Her procurement and international contract management experience includes holding senior level positions in the US, the Middle East and Europe.

Aisha joined Advokatfirman Runeland as a contract and dispute resolution consultant in September 2012, where she regularly advises clients on strategic procurement planning, contract drafting, contract management and dispute resolution. She acts as arbitrator, mediator and adjudicator and is retained regularly by parties, party counsel and arbitral tribunals in matters involving international arbitration, mediation and dispute boards.

She has experience with ICC, LCIA, SCC, DIAC, UNCITRAL and FIDIC rules. She has carried out assignments related to dispute resolution for organizations such as the World Bank, USAID and US DoD. Aisha is a regularly invited speaker at universities and specialized conferences on construction contracts and dispute resolution.

Aisha currently serves as a member and a principal drafter of FIDIC's Update Task Group updating the FIDIC 1999 Conditions of Contract for major works and as the Special FIDIC Procurement Advisor on Multilateral Development Bank matters. She is an officer of the International Construction Projects Committee of the International Bar Association.
