

Confirmed Speaker

Mr Paul Rogers

September 11, 2018

Paul Roger's joined BuroHappold in 1986 as a structural engineer working on projects in the UK. This was followed by three years in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia before heading to a unified Berlin in the heart of a transformational Europe. He founded BuroHappold's mainland Europe team in 1995 and led the growth of this team to comprise of 200 people located in Berlin, Munich, Warsaw and Copenhagen. In 2017 Paul Rogers became BuroHappold's Senior Partner.

As Managing Director Europe Paul Rogers led a multi-disciplinary Cities and Buildings team. In addition, he worked on projects across a range of sectors including Culture, Commercial Office & Residential and Mobility. Some of the most challenging and interesting projects he has led include Memorial for the Murdered Jews of Europe, Baakenhafen Bridge, and the BeMobility Project in Berlin, Germany as well as the Olaya Iconic Metro Station Riyadh in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

Attend the

Plenary 5 – Urban Connectivity: How will the new forms of mobility impact on traffic systems in cities? What impact on the way civil engineers design the roads? How is the investment landscape changing?

REGISTER NOW!