

Confirmed Speaker

Ms Wafaa Balla

September 11, 2018

Wafaa Balla Beshir Ahmed is an ordained Young Professional African engineer; and she was involved with FIDIC activities since 2013, she is a civil engineering graduate from the Khartoum University, Sudan. She has been awarded a Project Management Professional and the Risk Management Professional certificates from the project management institute, attended many professional, academic and professional training courses and workshops and she is a regular attendee for FIDIC International Infrastructure Conferences. Wafaa is also a member at the FIDIC Young Professional Steering Committee and the Chairperson of the Newsletter and Social Media Subcommittees.

She is currently working in the project management office in TEKNO Consultancy, based in Sudan as Contract Administrator; she has also been involved in different community development initiatives, with special concentration on the role of the Engineers in community and life improvement.

Attend the session

Future Leaders Outlook

REGISTER NOW!